Hall Estill Welcomes Attorney J. Douglas Gramling to NW Arkansas Office

May 8, 2023

Hall Estill, a regional Southwestern law firm, with offices in Northwest Arkansas, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Denver, has announced the addition of Shareholder J. Douglas Gramling to its Arkansas office.

Gramling joins Hall Estill after almost 40 years supporting clients in general civil litigation, estate planning and real estate matters. In addition, he has assisted clients in severe and catastrophic injury cases and supports clients in various professional roles who need assistance with malpractice and liability claims.

“Doug brings a wealth of experience to our Arkansas team,” said Steve Ray, managing partner for Hall Estill. “He has an impressive record representing clients and is well thought of in his community. His capabilities strongly enhance services our Arkansas office can deliver.”

In addition to his work in the litigation and real estate areas, Gramling also devotes his time aiding families in the probate of their estates both inside Arkansas and other states.

He earned his J.D. from the University of Arkansas School of Law and his Bachelor of Science degree in economics and business administration from Culver-Stockton College.
